DETAILED ACTION

1. Applicant's argument regarding the Statutory Double Patenting Rejection is persuasive. The examiner agrees that the term edible product has a different scope than the more narrow term confectionery product in the allowed US Patent 6,368,647 but the term does not constitute a statutory double patenting bar but rather would result in obvious double patenting issue for reason delineated in the response of August 22, 2003. Applicant has provided a timely filed and properly executed Terminal Disclaimer over the Capodieci 6,368,647 patent.
2. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

The application has been amended as follows:

In the Specification:

Page 1, line 11, insert --This application is a continuation of 09/581,982 filed August 24, 2000 now US Patent 6,368,647 which is a continuation of PCT/US98/27740 filed December 29, 1998.--

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The prior art fails to teach a method and apparatus for forming strips of edible material using a an ultrasonic slitting tool to form a strip of edible material wherein the cutting edges of the slitting tool are oriented at an approximate angle of 40 degrees to 60 degrees with respect to the horizontal plane of the edible product. By using an ultrasonic slitting apparatus constructed and arranged as claimed, over comes the prior problems and difficulties of rotary blade slitters wherein the edible product will build upon the blade causing the cutting operation to be stopped resulting in costly downtime.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
